Meetings will be held on the following Thursdays from 11:45AM-1:15PM in MAN 108 unless otherwise noted:

September
9/13 – Kick-Off Meeting – What is the History & Political Science Club? Lessons Learned: Six Years After September 11th
9/20 – Obsession – Radical Islam's War Against the West [Film + Discussion] [Location: MAN 103]
9/27 – Opportunities in our Disciplines – The faculty of the History and Political Science departments will offer an educational experience designed to present students with an array of opportunities in our two disciplines [Location: MAN 103]

October
10/11 – Dave D'Amico, Monmouth County Detective, will discuss regional and national Hate Crimes [Location: MAN 103]
10/25 – “Can’t we all just get along?” – Discussion with the College Republicans and the Democratic Club on why they have chosen to identify with a particular political party, what values and issues their party stands for, election tips, and more.

November
11/01 – Elections 2007: Cast an Educated Vote! – Come and learn about the candidates and the issues of this year’s election campaigns so that you can be an informed voter come Tuesday’s elections.
11/08 – Elections 2007: Results and Preview Elections 2008

December
12/13 – Ryan Mauro, Geopolitical Analyst, founder of WorldThreats.com, and author of Death to America: The Unreported Battle of Iraq, presents “Insights into the War in Iraq: The Insurgency, the Surge, and Recent Intelligence” [Location: MAN 103]
12/20 – Fall 2007 End of Semester Party

Visit the Political Science website for the latest information and scrolling announcements about the club and more! [http://www.brookdalecc.edu/fac/polsci/]